TESTIMONIALS

T. C. Fawcett-Dear Sir. ARLINGTON COOKING STOVE a mir trial and can safely recommend it to the public, and in short. I think the ARLINGTON has no equal for baking or for any other purpose. ROBENIA STEPHENS. EAST RICHLAND, April 7, 1873.

This is to certify that I purchased of Mr T C Fawcett, one of the No 9 ARLINGTON COOK STOVES, shout two years ago, and after a thorough and on-plete that, we do not heat-tate to recommend it as one of the best Cook Stoves in use. In all the time we have used it, we have never found one half with it. It does all its work to entire authorities. sall its work to entire satifac F. J. CARMAN, MRS. L. N. CARMAN. ST. CLAIRSVILLE, April 7, '78, T. C. Fawcett-Dear Sir:

We have used the ARLINGTON for six months to our perfect satisfaction, and with much less dust and dirt, than attends other Cook Stoves we have used.
